Discuss Disability Issues with Elected Officials At Arc Home Visit on Feb. 8 in Plymouth

ST. PAUL – If you or a family member use government services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, or if you're on a waiting list for services, Arc Greater Twin Cities invites you to meet with elected officials from Hennepin County District 7 at the home of Ann and Craig Strom. This Arc home visit will be on Tuesday, Feb. 8, from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. at 16430 42nd Ave. N., Plymouth.

Disability service users have a lot at stake in 2011 as decision-makers seek ways to cut budgets. At this Arc home visit, local residents can share their stories and discuss disability-related issues in an informal setting. Elected officials who have been invited to participate are Hennepin County Commissioner Jeff Johnson, Sen. Terri Bonoff and Rep. Sarah Anderson.

This event is free of charge, but participants are requested to RSVP by Feb. 4. To RSVP, call Arc at (952) 920-0855 or e-mail denafelper@arcgreatertwincities.org. Questions may be e-mailed to genemartinez@arcgreatertwincities.org.

Arc Greater Twin Cities is a nonprofit agency serving the many needs of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. Established in 1946, Arc has been changing attitudes, changing policies and changing lives for 65 years. Arc helps individuals and families address issues that span the lifetime, including early intervention, education, transition to adulthood, health care, housing, employment, guardianship and more. For more information and volunteer opportunities, call Arc at (952) 920-0855 or visit www.arcgreatertwincities.org.
